FAST RACING AT WORTH

Elsie L. proved herself to be a high class sprinter at Worth yesterday when she picked up 116 pounds in the fourth race, a dash of six furlongs for all ages, and won in hollow fashion, negotiating the distance in the fast time of 1:12 3/4. She was materially aided in her excellent effort by Coburn getting her off with a flying start. She led from beginning to end winning as her rider pleased by one and a half lengths from Jackfull which beat Andes three lengths for second place. The start was poor, Mary McCafferty and Sarah Maxim getting off flatfooted. Jackfull ran a surprisingly good race, showing much speed throughout and finishing strongly. Andes tired palpably in the last sixteenth struggle. Fake was badly cut off just before reaching the first quarter post, the mishap throwing him practically out of the race. Mary McCafferty was pocketed badly for the first three furlongs, getting clear sailing too late to be of any advantage. She can do much better and her race should not be taken seriously. Sarah Maxim suffered from much early interference. She laid in a fair position when turning for home, but tired rapidly in the final eighth.

The Conqueror II. finally ran one of his good races, and under an excellent and well timed ride by Coburn, took the fifth race, a dash of one mile and fifty yards, for three-year-olds and upward. The time, 1:42 3/4, was very fast, being within one-tenth of a second of the American record for that distance. The last mile was timed in 1:39 flat. The race was robbed of much of its interest by a start in which Pink Coat got much the worst of it by suddenly bolting. Ethylene shot to the front at flagfall and led for the first half mile, where Waswift moved up fast and displaced her. The latter held the lead until the final sixteenth, where The Conqueror II. moved up fast, the two fighting it out to the wire. The Conqueror II. won driving by a neck from Waswift, which beat Pink Coat one length for second place. Waswift showed much speed, but tired a trifle in the last sixteenth struggle. Pink Coat ran one of his old time races. He was many lengths back when reaching the first turn, but made up ground fast while going down the backstretch, swinging into the final quarter on almost even terms with Waswift, but the effort to make up the lost ground in the early stages of the race told on him and he had nothing left to finish with. Ethylene ran an unaccountably dull race, falling away beaten just before turning for home. Nitrate ceased to be a serious contender after six and one-half furlongs had been run. He was worked out an extra seven furlongs after passing the wire probably as a tryout for the Fort Dearborn Handicap to be run Saturday.

The day's opener, a dash of five furlongs for maiden two-year-old colts and geldings, went to the heavily backed Flyer, which opened at 4 to 1 and went to the post at 6 to 5. Jove led to the stretch, where Coburn called on Flyer and he easily went to the front, winning hands down by one length from Olivilo, which beat Jove the same distance for second place. Olivilo came with a belated rush at the end and altogether ran a good race. Jove tired perceptibly when the pinch came. Cracko showed speed for a half mile.

Congar, despite the fact of his carrying 116 pounds and conceding much to other horses, won the second race, a dash of seven and a half furlongs, in hollow fashion. Ale led to the final quarter where Congar took command winning by three lengths from Ale which beat The Caxton three and a half lengths for second place. Ale tired fast in the last sixteenth. The Caxton ran a poor race and appears to be of no present account. I. Samelson as usual showed early speed.

Charley Thompson was supposed to be a "moral" in the third race, a dash of seven and a half furlongs for all ages, but had to be driven out in the closing strides to beat Glenrice by a head. David S. finished third one and a half lengths back. Glenrice moved up fast in the last eighth and finished going fast. David S. showed much speed but tired when the pinch came. Silurian ran well for six and a half furlongs and is due to win when placed with judgment.

The last race of the day, a dash of one and one-quarter miles, was won by Hayward Hunter. Blessed Damozel, closely pressed by Do Madge, showed the way to the last quarter where there was a general closing up. In the last sixteenth Wing Dance came out of the field and appeared to be the winner but in the closing strides Hayward Hunter, coming from far back, came with a rush just getting up in time to win on the post by a neck, Wing Dance beating Jack Doyle one length for second place. The last named fouled Edith Q. and Vincitor in the final sixteenth, for which he was promptly disqualified, Vincitor being placed third.

The weather was not as chilly as on Tuesday which was instrumental in bringing out a noticeably larger attendance than on that day. The track was lightning fast and good time was made in all the races. Betting was lively and by far the heaviest of the week.

NOTES OF THE TURF

In the last race at Morris Park last Saturday the published Shields entry was Zoroaster and Andy Williams. Hunter Raine was also an entry. At a public sale that day Shields purchased Hunter Raine. The colt ran in the sixth race and won it, Zoroaster and Andy Williams having been scratched. Many wagers were made in the west on the Shields entry, particularly at Detroit. In response to many inquiries DAILY RACING FORM rules that Hunter Raine was not the Shields entry in the meaning of the wagers when they were made and backers are only entitled to a draw. The case is practically without a precedent and this decision seems equitable to backers and layers alike.

H. J. K., Chicago. (1) Your wager on Lucien Appleby was a draw. (2) In the parollee your wager was without action in the case of the horse that was "out" for place and a winner on the other horse.

J. J. W., Chicago. Unmasked was duly entered, but through carelessness on the part of the track officials his name was omitted in the list of entries sent out.

E. H. No mistake was made. No show odds were laid against Circus. Your assumption is ill founded.

F. C. Your wager was a loser because Cock Robin did not run as good as second.

W. M., Chicago. As the matter is stated by you your wager appears to be a winner.

C. A. G., Chicago. Your parollee on Scotch Plaid and Charles D. should be paid.

J. L., Chicago. Your wager on Charles D. should be paid.

Wade, Detroit. Your action in the matter was right.

E. K., Chicago. Your wager is still a winner.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP

Jockey Coburn showed a flash of his old time form yesterday, and his followers profited handsomely by the jockey's skillful riding, as all of his mounts were at a good price. Coburn only had five mounts, four of which he landed winners, while his mount Vincitor in the closing race was badly impeded when about to make his run by Jack Doyle and finished fourth. He was later placed third when the judges disqualified Jack Doyle.

J. H. Robbins arrived yesterday with his horse Colonel Ballantyne, which will be a starter in the Fort Dearborn Handicap, to be run Saturday.

Pink Coat started to bolt for the outside fence as the starter released the barrier in the fifth race, causing him, by the time he was straightened, to be many lengths behind the field in the first quarter.

Went to post at 2:15. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Bonnibert is in great form, gradually improved his position in the best going, came through on the stretch turn and closed up very strongly and caught Fire Eater tiring and swerving badly at the end. The latter was possibly best, but was excessively urged in the first half, in which he displayed remarkable speed. St. Finnan liked the cuppy going and just lasted long enough to beat Young Henry. The latter put up a great stretch run. Belle of Lexington tired and quit after racing on the far turn with Fire Eater. The Musketeer has become uncertain, and being overweighted was never dangerous. Whiskey King is in bad form and a sulker.

Winner—Ch. c. by Ben Strome—Craffie (trained by T. E. Healy).

Went to post at 2:45. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Cinquevalli, always prominent, fell away when turning into the stretch, but came again with a rush on the outside in good going and won drawing away. Wax Candle forced the pace and appeared a sure winner almost throughout, but lost many lengths when he bolted on the stretch turn and was best. Florham Queen closed a big gap and finished fast. Sparkle Esher fell away at the end after being forced into deep going. She seemed sure of second place when a sixteenth out. Gimcrack tired at the end. Bouquiniere, away slowly, made up much ground and was going strongly at the end. The others were outclassed.

Lyman Hay's speed was reserved for a final stretch run, where he unexpectedly made good and was coming very fast at the end. Leipsic, a reported good one, raced prominently, but failed to stay. Counterpoise showed amazing speed in going from last place to first in three furlongs and an intelligent ride would probably ter. He gradually wore down the field and at the time the stretch struggle began seemed to have a good chance of winning, but the early use he was put to and Davis' lack of finishing powers caused him to falter in the last seventy yards. His race, however, yesterday was a noticeable improvement over his previous effort when ridden by Otis.

Nitrate and Vincitor were both worked out yesterday in their races for the Fort Dearborn Handicap. The former was sent five furlongs at top speed after passing the finish in the one mile and fifty yards race, and Vincitor was given a strong mile canter after having finished in the mile and a quarter race. Both horses will in all probability go to the barrier for the event they were worked out for.

NEW YORK TURF TALK.

In its review of eastern racing affairs of passing interest the Sun of Monday says:

"With the close of the Westchester meeting the racing public considers the real season on the turf in this state at an end, for the reason that in times past the rich owners have always sent their horses away to winter quarters with the last note of the bugle at Morris Park. But during the next two weeks at the Queens County Jockey Club's track at Aqueduct there will be a higher class of racing than ever before, partially because of the increase in the value of stakes and purses and also because the Aqueduct track, with its many improvements in the way of new accommodations for the public, has grown so much in popular favor that it is no longer a hardship to run a horse there. The stakes to be run at this meeting are especially attractive, both in point of value and conditions. No purse will be less than $700 in value, while the stakes and handicaps will average $1,000 each in added money.

"The Creedmoor Stakes for two-year-olds at five and a half furlongs will be the magnet on Wednesday. Plater, which established a new world's record for this distance at Morris Park last week, will probably go to the post, together with such youngsters as Rosetint, Lady Albercraft, Skilful, Minotaur, Counterpoise, Boutonniere, W. R. Condon, Miladi Love, Mackey Dwyer, Cinquevalli, Sparkle Esher, Blue Peter and others. The Edgemere Stakes for all ages, weight for age, one mile and a furlong, to be run on Thursday, may bring together Hermis and Advance Guard, both of whom are eligible. A race between these turf stars just now would serve as one of the best attractions of the year and would create unbounded enthusiasm, as both horses are the most popular in the east. Should they go to the post they might have for company St. Finnan, Stamping Ground, Hurstbourne, Royal, Dr. Riddle and Potente.

"On Friday the Lynbrook Handicap for two-year-olds at six furlongs is carded with Plater, Lady Albercraft, Forward, Right and True, Rosetint, Courtmaid, Toscan, Orloff, Skilful, Minotaur, Boutonniere, Examiner, Miladi Love, Mackey Dwyer, Nevermore, Joe Cobb, Red Knight, Muzio and Eva Russell among the probable starters. The Babylon Handicap for all ages at seven furlongs will be decided on Saturday with a good field to be drawn from the following: St. Finnan, Anak, Bellario, Skilful, Daly, Royal, Moor, Remorse, Belle of Lexington, Mackey Dwyer, Nevermore, Contend, Red Knight, Ordnung, Maud Gonne, Sadducee, Carbuncle, Sparkle Esher and Oom Paul. The Aqueduct track, by the way, was never faster. Supt. Joe Reilly has been working at it for some time past until he has got things in shape for a series of track record-breaking performances. Last week it was a common thing for a horse to work a mile in 1:40. The Queens County Jockey Club has also provided additional stable room in view of the increase in the number of owners who have decided to remain over until the coming meeting ends.

"While there was an unusual amount of adverse criticism of the sport during the recent Morris Park meeting, and in an indirect way, hints against certain owners have been thrown out, involving scandal, the fact remains that actual proof of wrongdoing in such cases is lacking. In a word charges of wrongdoing may be safely offset by plausible excuses which make it impossible to deal out severe penalties. It is frequently the case that hot headed individuals say such and such a jockey pulled or such and such an owner 'doped' his horse; or that such and such a trainer deadened a favorite so that a second choice at a good price might win; but when it comes right down to cases, absolute proof is lacking. It is an easy matter to criticize and not at all difficult to ask why The Jockey Club does not rule off half a dozen riders and as many owners and trainers, but before any such action could be taken, proof of guilt would have to be obtained.

"The Jockey Club stewards have just revoked the license of jockey Louis Smith for alleged wrongdoing and he will not be allowed to ride again on any track, except, possibly, those in Chicago, where the rulings of the Eastern Jockey Club are not always recognized. From the ruling off of Smith, the conclusion has been naturally drawn that others are implicated in the trouble and that the stewards will not cease the present investigation until they have landed some big fish. Men who go to the racetrack for a livelihood have often heard gossip to the effect that jockeys are mere puppets in the hands of several shrewd manipulators who frame up jobs by which they may beat the betting ring. And the gossip has been so persistently spread that names have been mentioned. Pinkerton's men have been looking into these yarns, it is understood, for some time and whatever they have learned has been placed in the hands of the stewards.

"The showing of Eugenia Burch in the White Plains Handicap, when she took up top weight and finished nowhere, was explained by Starter Pettigill yesterday, who said the filly propped herself just after the barrier went up and lost so much ground that she never had a chance. Those who said the filly was the best two-year-old of the year after she had beaten Acefull and Grey Friar in the Champagne Stakes, though afterward disqualified, were inclined to change their minds after Saturday's race. As the crack two-year-olds go into winter quarters the question of supremacy remains in doubt. Grey Friar, Acefull, Eugenia Burch, Savable, Mexican, Meltonian, Plater, Irish Lad, Mizzen and others have done enough to completely tie up the situation so that no turf sharp cares to figure out a champion.

"The attention of horsemen is called to the fact that a number of valuable stakes offered by the Brighton Beach Racing Association will close on Saturday of this week. The events are the $10,000 Brighton Junior Stakes, the $5,000 Neptune Stakes and the $5,000 Venus Stakes, all for two-year-olds and to be run in 1903, and the $10,000 Brighton Derby, the $5,000 Iroquois Stakes and the $5,000 Brighton Oaks, all for three-year-olds and to be run in 1904. The Venus Stakes and the Brighton Oaks are for fillies of their respective years. Entries should be addressed to the Racing Secretary, Brighton Beach Racing Association, 215 Montague Street, Brooklyn."

CASTLETON STUD.

"As we drove up the long and shaded avenue which leads from the public road to the old fashioned mansion at Castleton, a bay colt galloping through a narrow paddock attracted attention, and we were told that he was one of the pets of the establishment," says Turf, Field and Farm. "At the sale of the late Marcus Daly, October 1, 1901, there was spirited bidding for the twelve-year-old mare Field Azure, by Bend Or—Falaize, and James R. Keene secured her for $18,500. It was a big price, but a weanling colt by St. Simon—Field Azure, changed hands at the same sale for $13,500, and the actual risk assumed was on the mare living and continuing fertile. She was in foal by the highly bred English stallion Le Var, and the coming of the colt was eagerly anticipated. February 15 the distinguished youngster was dropped and its markings were star and left hind leg white above ankle and right hind pastern white. When the dark bay colt was two months old its dam, Field Azure, died of an old complaint, adhesion of intestines, and the orphan was raised by hand. It thrived on the treatment it received and is a well grown and strongly formed weanling. His paddock companion is also an orphan. Mr. Keene purchased Anna Grey, b. Free Knight—Alice Grey, at the Daly sale, and March 19 she dropped a brown colt without white by Trenton. The dam died soon after foaling, and Major Daingerfield succeeded in saving the offspring. He brought from the pasture a mare with a newly born foal, tied up her leg so as to prevent her kicking, and let the orphan nurse her for one hour. He shifted, as occasion required, from mare to mare, using ten in all, and thus kept the Anna Grey colt well nourished without seriously encroaching upon the food supply of the colts that ran with their mothers. The Trenton—Anna Grey colt is now a strong and well developed youngster, and should be ready for the yearling test. Petting has not spoiled it or the Field Azure colt.

"The fox hounds, the beagles and the pointers welcomed us to the wide hall at Castleton, and looked up knowingly when the stallions were led out upon the lawn and stood under the maple and the ash. The coats of the well-groomed horses shone richly in the October sunshine, vieing in splendor with the autumn tints, and the necks were arched and the nostrils distended with a feeling of pride. Horoscope, whose colts have been running well this season, was not one of the band because he had the misfortune last spring to run against a tree and kill both himself and his groom. He was by Amphion—Fair Visitor, and a number of the Castleton mares are in foal by him. The first horse to appear was St. Leonards, by St. Blaise—Belladonna, and Judge P. P. Johnston, who was one of the party, looked upon the stately chestnut with striking blaze and remarked that he had always admired him. He is also quite a favorite with Major Daingerfield, and is being given an excellent chance in the stud. Vigor, the great sprinter by Friar's Balsam—Mavourneen, is now eight years old, and a year's rest has made a different horse of him. He looks big and stately, and Mr. Keene is confident that youngsters of rare speed will come from his loins. He is a little over in the knees, but this is a peculiarity of many good race horses. If you want to see a young stallion of power and grandeur, look upon Commando as he stands on the carpet of blue grass in the noon-day sunshine. This whirlwind son of the mighty Domino and Emma C. is now four years old and he stands 16 1/2 and weighs 1,360 pounds. Mr. William Russell Allen could not keep his eyes from him and remarked that he had the power, substance and sloping hip of a trotter. Every mare bred to Commando is in foal, and deep interest will be taken in his first crop of youngsters. Disguise II, is regarded as the next best son of Domino. As he is fresh from the English turf, where he won renown, being rated by the London Sportsman as the best of the Americans, he looks thin when contrasted with Commando, but a year's rest will change him entirely. He is five years old, stands 16 1/2, and belongs to the symmetrical type. His dam is the noted mare Bonnie Gal, and among his English performances were first in the Rothschild Plate May Stakes, third to Diamond Jubilee in the Derby, and first in the Jockey Club Stakes of 10,000 sovereigns ($50,000), one mile and a quarter, defeating among others Diamond Jubilee and Jolly Tar. Kingston and Ben Brush were the last to appear and they are horses of different conformation. Kingston is a brown, eighteen years old, by Spendthrift—Kapanga, and he impresses you at a glance, as any horse should do which raced until he was eleven years old, and scored more than a hundred victories. He has the eye of one born to rule, and a wonderfully good hind leg. In a saddle class ring he would show up forcibly, but it is in the stud that he is in demand. Last spring Mr. Keene refused to book ten outside mares to him at $1,000 each. Ben Brush is of the cob type, a powerful horse on short legs. He is by Bramble—Roseville, is nine years old, stands 15 1/2 and has been well represented on the turf this season. There is no doubt but that the sons and daughters of Ben Brush will race as their sire raced.

"The great breeding establishments of the world have been freely drawn upon to strengthen the broodmare band at Castleton. In no other paddocks do the same number of richly bred matrons graze. A fortune has been spent upon this department, and the logical outcome must be race horses of stake class. If not, then trample in the mud the accepted law that like begets like or the likeness of some ancestor.

"Driving along the turnpike, we looked over the stone wall into the big woodland pasture and there saw, standing on a knoll, shaded by walnut and hickory, a bunch of weanlings that aroused a spirit of covetiveness. They were so large with graceful outlines, so stamped with individuality and health, that it would be difficult, in all this broad land, to match them. When the sun was hiding its face below the tops of the tall trees the youngsters turned their heads toward the circular stable where they are sheltered at night, two in a stall, and the opportunity was afforded to inspect them at close range. A year ago Mr. Keene paid $11,000 for Lady Reel, dam of Hamburg, in foal to St. Simon, and that brown filly with blaze face and white hind ankles, so conspicuous in the band, is the result of the mating. The foal was dropped March 31, and it has more of the characteristics of Hamburg than of any other from the womb of the renowned broodmare that we have seen. The sister of this young lady cost W. C. Whitney, as a yearling one year ago, $16,000, and the other sister was sold as a weanling to August Belmont for $25,000. Omitting the Field Azure, Anna Grey and Lady Reel weanlings, the other weanlings at Castleton are:

Under a good ride Cougar showed much improvement, went to the front on call and won as his rider pleased. Alee showed speed but tired perceptibly when the pinch came. The Caxton ran a dull race and appears to be of slight present account. 1. Samelson ran well for six furlongs. The others were never serious contenders.

Charley Thompson was not called on until entering the last quarter. He appeared to be winning easily in the last sixteenth but had to be driven out in the closing strikes to stall off Glenrice's determined finish. The latter came with a rush at the end but could not quite get up. David S. showed much speed but tired palpably when the pinch came. Silurian was well spent when a furlong out. He ran a good race and bears watching from now on. Evelyn Byrd was cut off badly while going down the backstretch, which practically threw her out of the race.

Overweights—Clausus, 11 pounds. Charley Thompson, show, out. Glenrice, show, 3 to 10. David S., show, 3 to 1.

Elsie L., off flying, showed much speed and was never in trouble, winning as her rider pleased. Jackfull ran a surprisingly good race and was much the best of the others. Andes tired when the pinch came. Fake was badly cut off at the first quarter, which practically threw him out of the race. Mary McCafferty, off flat-footed, was in a pocket for the first three furlongs and got clear sailing too late to be of any advantage. Scratched—35923 St. Cuthbert, 126; 35942 Pretorius, 107; 35922 Little Jack Horner, 95.

Time, 24.49, 1:14.3. Winner—Br. h. by Sir Dixon—Repeat (trained by B. Vincent). Went to post at 4:05. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Pink Coat getting much the worst of it. Won driving; second handily. The Conqueror II. ran to his best form. He was admirably ridden. Coburn making his run at exactly the right time, the horse outgaming Waswift in the closing strides under a vigorous ride. Waswift showed much speed, but tired just a trifle in the closing strides. Pink Coat ran one of his old time races. He was many lengths back at the start, but made up ground fast while going down the backstretch. This took all the vigor out of him and he had little left to finish with. Ethylene ran slightly below her best form. Nitrate ceased to be a serious contender after six furlongs had been run. He was worked out an extra seven furlongs after passing the wire.

Overweights—The Conqueror II., 5 pounds. The Conqueror II., show, 1 to 2. Waswift, show, 2 to 5. Pink Coat, show, 8 to 5. Ethylene, show, out. Nitrate, show, 1 to 3.

Hayward Hunter came with a rush at the end, just getting up in time to win on the post. Wing Dance was the best of the others, finishing strongly. Jack Doyle stood a long stretch drive with gameness and finished resolutely. He bumped and fouled Edith Q. and Vincitor at the last sixteenth post, for which he was promptly disqualified. Vincitor being placed third. The last named showed much improvement and bears watching from now on. Blessed Damozel showed much speed, but tired fast after turning for home. The same may be said of Do Madge. Edith Q. was running strongly at the time of the fouling and would have been a keen contender at the finish but for the interference.

Overweights—Wing Dance, 2 pounds. Hayward Hunter, show, 6 to 5. Wing Dance, show, 3 to 5. Jack Doyle, show, 4 to 5. Blessed Damozel, 7 to 10.

Winner—Ch. c. by Tiger—Genette Edwards (trained by C. T. Boots).
Went to post at 2:40. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second easily. Under a good ride Cougar showed much improvement, went to the front on call and won as his rider pleased. Aliee showed speed but tired perceptibly when the pinch came. The Caxton ran a dull race and appears to be of slight present account. I. Samelson ran well for six furlongs. The others were never serious contenders.

Overweights—Whiten, 2 pounds; Vestia, 2.

Winner—B. g. by Appomattox—Forget Me Not (trained by J. Lyman).
Went to post at 3:05. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Charley Thompson was not called on until entering the last quarter. He appeared to be winning easily in the last sixteen but had to be driven out in the closing strikes to stall off Glenrice's determined finish. The latter came with a rush at the end but could not quite get up. David S. showed much speed but tired palpably when the pinch came. Silurian was well spent when a furlong out. He ran a good race and bears watching from now on. Evelyn Byrd was cut off badly while going down the backstretch, which practically threw her out of the race.

Overweights—Clausus, 1½ pounds.
Charley Thompson, show, out. Glenrice, show, 3 to 10. David S., show, 3 to 1.

Winner—B. f. by St. Leonards—Elsie (trained by G. W. Poole).
Went to post at 3:35. Off at once to a poor start. Won easily; second the same. Elsie L., off flying, showed much speed and was never in trouble, winning as her rider pleased. Jackfull ran a surprisingly good race and was much the best of the others. Andes tired when the pinch came. Fake was badly cut off at the first quarter, which practically threw him out of the race. Mary McCafferty, off flat-footed, was in a pocket for the first three furlongs and got clear sailing too late to be of any advantage.

Time, 24½, 49½, 1:14½, 1:39, 1:12½.
Winner—Br. h. by Sir Dixon—Repeat (trained by B. Vincent).
Went to post at 4:05. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Pink Coat getting much the worst of it. Won driving; second handsly. The Conqueror II. ran to his best form. He was admirably ridden, Coburn making his run at exactly the right time, the horse outgaming Waswift in the closing strides under a vigorous ride. Waswift showed much speed, but tired just a trifle in the closing strides. Pink Coat ran one of his old time races. He was many lengths back at the start, but made up ground fast while going down the backstretch. This took all the vigor out of him and he had little left to finish with. Ethylene ran slightly below her best form. Nitrate ceased to be a serious contender after six furlongs had been run. He was worked out an extra seven furlongs after passing the wire.

Overweights—The Conqueror II., 5 pounds.
The Conqueror II., show, 1 to 2. Waswift, show, 2 to 5. Pink Coat, show, 8 to 5. Ethylene, show, out. Nitrate, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—Ch. g. by Handspring—The Lioness (trained by C. K. Burdeau).
Went to post at 4:35. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Hayward Hunter came with a rush at the end, just getting up in time to win on the post. Wing Dance was the best of the others, finishing strongly. Jack Doyle stood a long stretch drive with gameness and finished resolutely. He bumped and fouled Edith Q. and Vincitor at the last sixteenth post, for which he was promptly disqualified. Vincitor being placed third. The last named showed much improvement and bears watching from now on. Blessed Damozel showed much speed, but tired fast after turning for home. The same may be said of Do Madge. Edith Q. was running strongly at the time of the fouling and would have been a keen contender at the finish but for the interference.

Overweights—Wing Dance, 2 pounds.
Hayward Hunter, show, 6 to 5. Wing Dance, show, 3 to 5. Jack Doyle, show, 4 to 5. Blessed Damozel, 7 to 10.

Winner—Ch. c. by Counter Tenor—Onlight (trained by B. Smith).
Went to post at 2:17. At post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Light Opera was off well, showed the most speed throughout and ran to his best form. In Doubt ran well and with a stronger ride would have given the winner some trouble. Shot Proof tired and was doing his best to stall off Kilmoncliffe. The latter was pinched off at the stretch entry, but came again with a rush. Florence Berger was pulled up at the start.

Overweights—Kilmoncliffe, 2 pounds; In Doubt, 3.

Prince Richard evidently found a track to his liking and early took a long and winning lead which he retained mildly driving in the last quarter. Kilogram, nearly left, closed a tremendous gap. Bounteous was lucky, beat the gate, ran in greatly improved form and stood a long drive gamely. Major Mansir made up twenty lengths on the leaders after being all but left. Arden quit under Shea's bad ride. Dr. Riddle ran a bad race. Wild Pirate lacked early speed, but was coming along well at the end. Old Hutch liked the soft going, took the lead on the first turn and kept it to the finish always well in hand and was much the best. Lord Badge, after a hard effort to overtake the winner in the stretch, was an easy second with plenty left. Huntressa moved up when straightened for home, but tired and failed to stay and just got up in time to beat Essene. The latter ran a good race in the worst going.
